

Fordel

Important Client Notice: Fraudulent Investment Activity

We have become aware of ongoing fraudulent schemes in which illegitimate parties use the identities of reputable financial firms to offer investment products, particularly fixed-income instruments such as bonds.

These parties may present themselves as representatives of the genuine firm and, in some cases, utilise similar contact details. For clarity, all Fordel communications are sent solely from email addresses ending in @fordel.ie.

We urge clients to remain vigilant and to treat unsolicited investment approaches with caution. Should you have any doubt about the legitimacy of communications attributed to Fordel, kindly verify by contacting us directly on 01 969 4444.